siding in a success from which they are to be kicked off at the winning-post. The importance of Maine in the coming election is very great, and her position exceptional. The Democracy, which claims a Solid South, would use this northernmost key to unlock the door which has barred them from power so long. They depend on Maine Greenbackers to help them to do it. But for our third party there is no hope in such a change. The change which the Greenbackers in Maine and every other State demand, is a change of measures and not a change of political organizations merely. Will the Greenbackers of Maine allow themselves to be rallied to the platform which demands hard money; to be marshaled under the flag which protects fraudlent ballots, and march to the music of men who beast that success to them means disintegration and the utter destruction of the Greenback party? Will the "Greenback lity" permit itself to be kicked from the "Democratic horse" by its own violition? Will you pool issues with the Democracy, which chooses to mock your candidate who defied their Congress and forced them to a vote; who have nothing but scorn for the effort of a good man who aims to give homes to his fellows? Better far to be an active and solid minority than swallowed up in the victory of false allies. Every effort at fusion with the opposing elements weakens and destroys. There is no hope for the third party anywhere save on the platform they have chosen and an uncompromising fight on its principles."

A Washington dispatch says that the significance of this editorial will appear We alluded to the fact yesterday ing that our Greenbrier correspondent had informed us that Jake Jackson, Dem-State, had, in a public speech at Lewis burg, on the 23d of this month, denied uted to him in the quotation standing at ferred to the well-known fact that we had invited him to make this denial while he was here in Wheeling, and had offered to clinch his Fairmont words with overwhelming evidence in case he saw fit to deny them. The trouble grew out of some dealings between the men; commenced in a flat-fight and ended as above. Boulden, the man doing the shooting, went back into Wetzel, and we have not yet heard of his arrest.

Gen. Goff and John A. Hutchinson spoke to a large crowd here last Monday. It was the first day of the County Court, and the Democrats had tried for some weeks to get a man to meet the above named gentlemen, for a joint discussion, but no one put in an appearance. We suppose since the Weston titt, Col. Ben Wilson did not care about it himself, and the other "head-lights" of Democracy in this district seem slow about defending him. They begin to see another "lost cause" awaits them this fall.

Gen. Goff spoke first, and made a speech fully up to his envisible reputation as an orator. He handled the issues of the day in a vigorous manner; and showed from avery neare of the history of the two great for Hancock in that State. The National organ of the Greenback party at Washington has had its eyes opened to what is going on in this direction, and in its last The immediate cause of its remarks was the letter from Maine of Stillson Hutchins, editor of the Washington Post (the substance of which the INTELLIGENcan gave a few days ago), in which he complained that the Greenback element was but excellent speech, that made him many votes.

The feeling among Democrats in this county against Col. Wilson is deep, and by no process of "chipping in" can he carry the full vote of his party. While Hutchinson was reviewing Wilson's record in Congress, which was well done, some Democrats of course pretended to get angry, but we noticed others smile, showing plainly that they were enjoying it.

The day following Gen. Goff spoke in Sistersville, and Mr. Hutchinson at Shirley, in the upper part of the county. There was was a good gathering out at these meetings, and we hear the speeches made spoken of as fully up to the expectations of all.

Mr. Hutchinson is confident of his election, and he seems no more so than the masses of the people. So let it be.
